Dear [REDACTED]

25X1A

Receipt of your letter of July 3, 1947 is acknowledged. The message which I dispatched to you on June 12, 1947 was:

[REDACTED] will contact you relative procurement equipment as supply officer FBIB stop your cooperation desired stop*.

25X1A

Immediately upon receiving your letter I requested the Signal Center here to have this message traced, and have been informed by them that you read this cable in their office on June 13, 1947 and took one copy with you.

Whether this is a mistatement or whether you have forgotten having seen the message is really of no importance as long as you understand its contents and as long as we are sure here that it was not lost enroute.

Very truly yours,

25X1A
